ABOUT KADIA

Kadia was born in Bern, Switzerland to father Boaz aka 'Bosar', a Jazz musician of Yemeni-Israeli descent and Swiss mother Verena, a humanitarian. She grew up both in Israel and Switzerland and came to the United States in 2004 to pursue her acting career.

Kadia has worked on various television shows and films and is currently recurring as Anya Avital in "Law & Order - Special Victims Unit" and recently appeared as Legal Attache Erin Padilla on "FBI: International".

Kadia Saraf has been diligently studying ASL and learning about Deaf Culture and is an active advocate for the Deaf community in the entertainment industry. Kadia recently conceptualized a story of deaf survivors of sexual assault for episode 10 called "Jumped In" in season 24 of Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, which aired on January 5th, 2023.

She is currently developing a 6-episode limited series based on true events. A story about her great grandmother, widowed at the young age of 23, forced to save her seven children from persecution in 1930's Yemen.
